

SELF-PACED GRANTS WORKSHOP SERIES

National grants expert Joan Brody provides assistance with identifying your agency's needs, developing a grant strategy to identify and apply for available grants, and learning how to manage grants after winning an award. This five-part series includes recorded presentations and step-by-step tutorials that can be watched any time and at your own pace. Each workshop focuses on a different but connected aspect of the grant process. Handouts and fillable worksheets designed to increase your grant-seeking knowledge accompany workshops 1-4.
